

Basic Armonía
For Mariachi

2nd Edition

Juan A. Contreras Jr.

Copyright 2005

The armonía or rhythm section of the mariachi is made up of the guitarrón, vihuela, guitarra de golpe, guitar and harp and is the heartbeat of any mariachi. If the armonía in a mariachi sounds good, it can carry the whole group. If the armonía sounds bad the whole group will sound bad. I developed these exercises in order to train my incoming students to their best capabilities.

The rhythm clef in the exercises is read by the guitars, guitarra de golpe, and vihuela. The bass clef is read by the guitarrón and harp.

Basic Armonía For Mariachi started off as just a reference to help my students transpose songs and that's what I hope anyone who practices these exercises eventually achieves.

This book is different from my first edition in that now the corresponding guitarrón notes are written along with the armonía chords so that they can be played together in a classroom setting.

Guitarrón

The musical score consists of two staves. The top staff, labeled 'Armonía', uses a treble clef and common time signature. It features a series of chords indicated by letters above the staff: am, G, F, E7, am, G, F, E7, am, and am. The notes are represented by vertical stems grouped together. The bottom staff, labeled 'Guitarrón', uses a bass clef and common time signature. It contains a sequence of eighth and quarter notes corresponding to the harmonic progression above. Both staves end with a double bar line and a key signature change to two sharps (F# and C#).
